

How to Work With an Architect

What Every Person Should Know Before Building or Remodeling a Home

6:30 - 8 p.m.

Wednesday, April 16

Cost: Free

Location: Washington Park Home
(Map will be provided upon RSVP)

RSVPs Required ; No exceptions.
303.446.2266 or emily@aiacolorado.org

Presented by

A Component of The American Institute of Architects

In celebration of

Enjoy hearing from two of The American Institute of Architects Denver Chapter's 2007-08 Architects' Choice Awards winners. Ron Faleide, AIA, of Faleide Architects and Karen Keating, AIA, of TKP Architects PC will discuss residential design and answer your questions.

Learn the best way to finish that basement, remodel your kitchen or complete an addition to your home. Even the most basic projects can benefit from great and affordable design!

Complimentary refreshments will be provided in addition to a free, take-home copy of You & Your Architect: A Guide For A Successful Partnership. RSVP today by calling 303.446.2266 or sending an e-mail to emily@aiacolorado.org.

Ron Faleide, AIA, has more than 30 years of design experience working with a broad range of clients, including corporations, schools, churches, restaurants, banks, the U.S. government and owners of fine homes and affordable housing. His work has been recognized nationally and internationally as well as by AIA. He established Faleide Architects in 1995 and since has established a reputation for creating award-winning designs that enhance clients' quality of life where they work and live.

Karen Keating, AIA, is president and founder of TKP Architects and Structural Design Partnership, p.c. TKP is a custom residential firm that designs custom homes and home remodels to meet the special needs and match the unique personalities of their clients. Keating has authored several articles on design for a variety of publications.