

THE HARLEY GROUP

Shari Harley, MA, is the President of The Harley Group International, a Denver-based training and consulting firm specializing in helping organizations produce unprecedented results by developing and retaining key talent. Shari works with organizational leaders and professionals enabling them to say anything, making potentially difficult conversations easy. Participants leave Shari's programs with the knowledge and ability to strengthen any relationship, career, and organization.

Leaders learn how to create and maintain an organizational culture and succession plan in which people can and want to win.

Managers learn how to onboard, develop and retain committed and effective employees who are loyal both to them and to the organization.

Professionals learn how to manage their careers, replacing ineffective behaviors with those that elevate their careers.

Business owners and sales people learn how they are perceived by their clients and prospects, increasing sales, repeat business and revenue.

Shari is an engaging and informative speaker and trainer who captures participant's attention with her energy, charisma, warmth, and use of humor. Her direct, honest and candid style is refreshing. Course participants leave every session with the ability to produce new results.

Shari has worked in the trenches in diverse industries and has learned through years of both successes and challenges what works and what doesn't work when growing and developing employees and organizations. She has spoken across the U.S. and in Dubai, Singapore, Thailand and Malaysia. Shari holds a Master's Degree in Applied Communication from the University of Denver and a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from Washington University in St. Louis, MO.

Website with additional information and demo videos: www.shariharley.com.