

SHORT TERM AND LONG TERM GOALS: WHERE ARE WE HEADED?
- advocacy, education, outreach -

ANNUAL

- AIA Denver Design Awards Gala (Member & Profession)
- Continue the AIA Tree Planting and Member Appreciation Picnic – 5 year goal = 1000 trees. (Member & Society)
Denver Parks and Recreation
- Continue the annual fall lecture series sponsor in conjunction with UCD Arch and Planning (Profession)
- Provide a minimum of 10 AIA learning units through monthly forums (Member & Profession)
- Provide GBCI maintenance opportunities through monthly forums (Member & Profession)
- Continue project tours and the summer retreat. (Member, Profession, & Society)
- AIA COTE Advisory Group Leadership (local, state, regional, national) Development (Member, Profession, Society, & AIA)
- Continue to advocate for greener policy and green building codes at the city level (Member, Profession, & Society)

3 YEAR = 2013

- 2010: AIA Colorado Design Conference – “Sustainability Panelist” (Profession, & Society)
Angela Brooks (from LA) to moderate the sustainability session
- 2010: New long term home with A/V capabilities (webinar format) for the 2011 monthly Forum series (Member & AIA)
Staff
- 2011: “52 Idea Challenge” – develop a deck of cards depicting 52 green ideas for design and construction. Becomes AIA marketing collateral (Member, Profession, Society, & AIA)
- 2011: 2030 Challenge – Annual. (January through October). (Member, Profession, & Society)
– Sydney Hamilton, AAIA – Task Force Chair
Significant planning effort required during the remainder of 2010.
- 2011: Green Home Tour during Architecture Month – Contemporary, Remodels, Historic Preservation with a green facelift, multi-family, etc (Member, Profession, & Society)
Denver Architectural Foundation
- 2011: CAD-1/Habitat Design Competition (Member, Profession, & Society)
- Brad Bull, AIA – Task Force Chair
Habitat for Humanity, CADD-1, AIA Denver Housing Committee.
- 2011: Support DDP’s “Watts to Water Program.” AIA’s involvement to include education, speakers, etc. (Member, Profession, & Society)
Malia Campbell – DDP Sustainability Coordinator
- 2012: Center for Colorado Architecture - Assist AIA Colorado with relocation after their lease expires in 2012 (Member, Profession, Society, & AIA)
CU, UCD Arch and Planning, AIA Colorado
- 2012: AIA National Convention Planning - the most sustainable convention in Denver’s history. (Member, Profession, Society, & AIA)
City of Denver, downtown hotels, downtown restaurants, DDP, Host project tours
- 2013: AIA National Convention – COTE Gala (Member, Profession, Society, & AIA)
500 people – Coordinate with AIA Colorado COTE
- Assist the municipalities of AIA Denver to adopt the 2009 IECC as part of the adoption of the 2009 ICC codes. Further the Development of the IGCC Code and promote its adoption. (Member, Profession, Society, & AIA)